FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 10, 2012

Third Annual Audubon Woods Run set for May 5, 2012

(Henderson, KY)-The third annual Audubon Woods Run will be held at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 5, 2012, at Audubon State Park in Henderson. As in past years, a portion of the challenging 5K run/walk will follow wilderness trails at the park. The 2012 event will also have a Kentucky Derby theme – "Off to the Races" – and include a Derby hat competition.

Runners, walkers and outdoor enthusiasts of all ages and fitness levels are encouraged to enter. The race route will take participants into the far reaches of the park along Warbler Road to Back Country Trail, past Wilderness Lake to Coffee Tree Trail and back to start/finish line near the park's Tea House. There will be two water stations on the route as well as free fruit and water available at the end of the race. Trophies will be given in several age groups and both trophies and prizes will be awarded to the top overall finishers.

The registration fee is $20 before May 1, 2012 and $25 thereafter. Participants can register online at www.raceit.com/Register/?event or by contacting the Chamber at (270) 826-9531 or Race Director Aleisha Sheridan at (270) 831-8780. Proceeds from the race will benefit the Henderson-Henderson County Chamber of Commerce's Community Foundation for Excellence, which supports local education initiatives, including the Imagination Library program.
